HAS BEGUN AT MIAMI

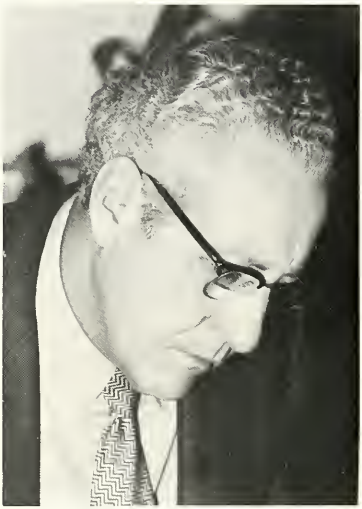
Indians challenged their beginning with determination and drive. Being able to conquer the massive halls, finding classes, getting to know fellow students, were all a part of Miami's first year.

1972—MIAMI'S YEAR OF FIRSTS

Debbie White designed the "first" RESERVATION cover.

Greg Staight, first Student Council President.

Janet Pehrson-Our first RESERVATION editor.



Mr. Kermit Leininger, Miami's first Chief.

Cathleen Shanayda- our first TRAIL BLAZER editor.

Dave Garrett named the yearbook.

Linda McMahon and Lora Friedrich named the newspaper.

PUBLICA S STAFF

UNDER THESE GUIDING HANDS

Mr. Kermit Leininger, Principal

Mr. Kermit Leininger, Miami Junior High School Principal, had to be four persons at once-organizer, supervisor, ambassador to the public, and administrator. With a bachelor's degree from Manchester College and a master's degree in education from Indiana University, he is certainly well-equipped for his tough job!

Planning programs and schedules, seeing that all plans were carried out successfully, checking classes, ironing out difficulties, talking with parents, directing all activities and overseeing all school records left Mr. Leininger only a few spare moments.

Dr. Glenn F. Mulligan, Assistant Principal, received his bachelor's degree from Manchester College. In addition to a master's degree, he also earned a Doctorate in Education degree from Indiana University.

Dr. Mulligan is the able assistant to Mr. Leininger in helping him to carry out the endless tasks of administering the total school program.

OUR ACADEMIC DAYS WERE PLANNED.

Miss Beverly Moore, Guidance Counselor

Miss Beverly Moore earned a B.S. degree and an M.A. degree from Ball State University.

Mr. James R. Davis has his B.S. degree from Ohio State University, and his M.S. degree from St. Francis College.

When students needed a friend or an advisor, they hustled off to the main office where Miss Moore and Mr. Davis were always eager to help anyone who stepped inside the door.

Mr. James R. Davis, Guidance Counselor

SOME PROCESSED PAPERS AND BILLS

Mrs. Burnice Toor, Secretary

The secretaries form one of the most important cogs in the office mechanism of the school system. Keeping accounts of the money that rolled in and out of the office, filing records for the school and performing various stenographic duties were the women in the office of the Principal

Mrs. Joan Sterling, Secretary

OTHERS PROVIDED PILLS AND SKILLS

Mrs. Esther Warner, Staff Nurse

Mr. John A. Steiner, Psychometrist

"Do you have a headache or feel ill after an exam? If so, drop in the clinic where you will find just the right pills for your ills." Many students followed this advice and found Mrs. Esther Warner eager to help.

Mr. John A. Steiner works with students on an individual basis in order to help them utilize their intellectual potential, to make them more aware of their strengths and weaknesses, and how to make the best use of this knowledge.

"Too many cooks spoil the broth." This was not true in our cafeteria. Mrs. Anna Gray and her staff supplied delectable food for a hungry army and kept the cafeteria clean, pleasant, and well-organized. Mrs. Anna Gray, Cafeteria Manager

GATHERING OF DEMOCRATIC THINKING

STUDENT COUNCIL. Top row: Manuel Lewis, Craig Teeters, Kim Schorr, Debby Fox, Greg Staight, Mike White, Tim Ankenbruck, and Terri Miller. Mr. Dale Decker's Typing Class

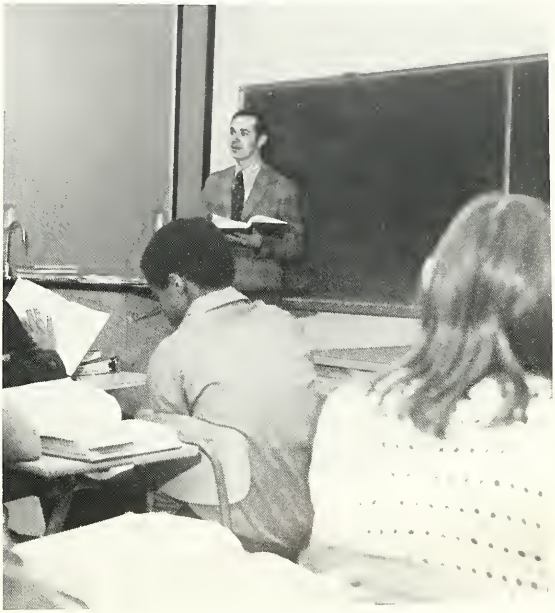
TYPING—THE BACKBONE OF BUSINESS

Mr. Dale Decker's General Business Class

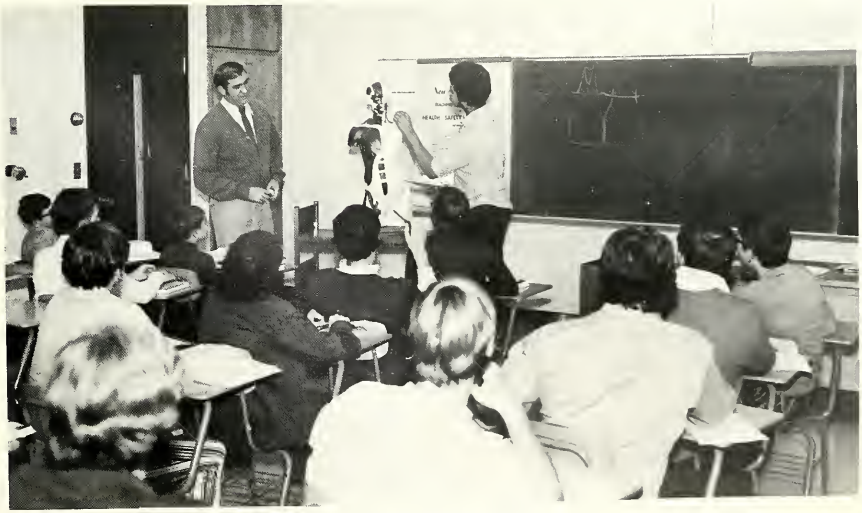
BIOLOGY WHETS SCIENTIFIC APETITE

Biology provides a springboard into science as Mr. Gene Eickhoff brings out inside information on the inhabitants of the earth with laboratory dissections.



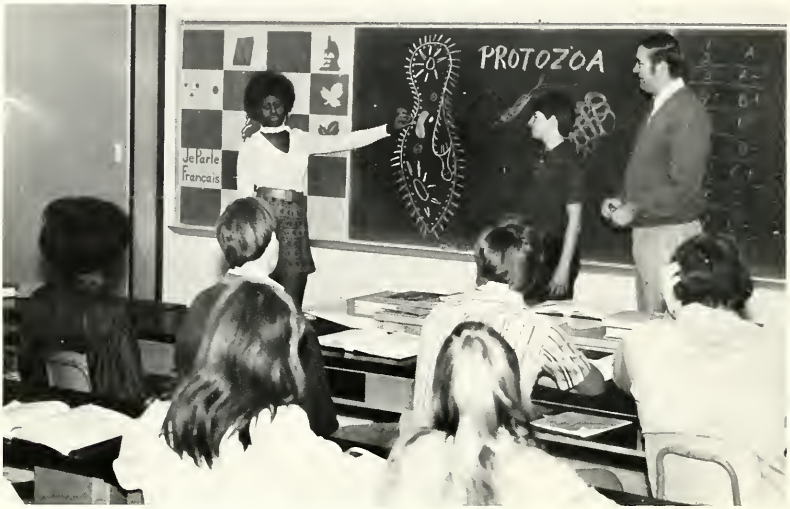
Mr. Gene Eickhoff's Biology Class

Into the heart of life delved Paul Minniefield in Mr. Frank Hole's health class. The plastic dummy illustrates the functions of the organs.



Mr. Frank Hole's Health Class

SCIENCE OPENS DOOR TO KNOWLEDGE



Mr. Frank Hole and Steve Pasternak listen with the class to Paula Causey's scientific explanation.

Mr. Rex Shellenbarger is attempting to make the study of science an understandable reality.

Students in Mr. Anthony Scatena's Social Studies' classes learn the ways of life, governments, occupations, education, and geographies of the countries in this world.

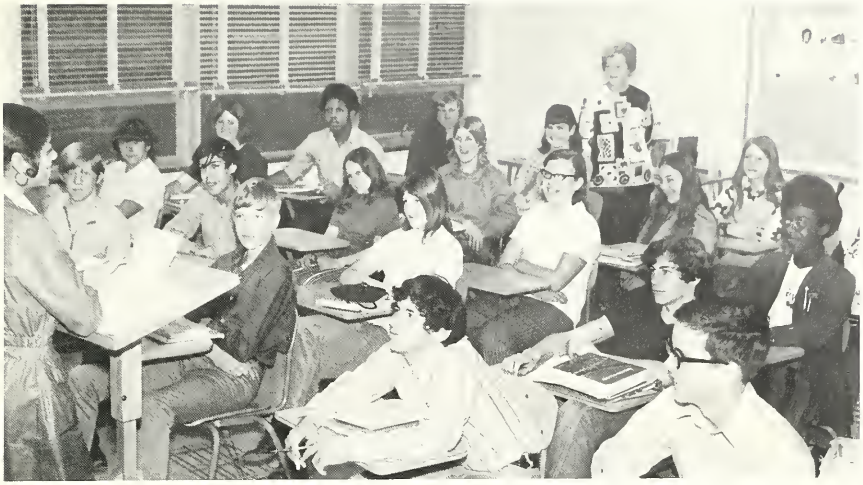
SOCIAL STUDIES FOCUSES ON FUTURE

LANGUAGES ADD A FOREIGN FLAVOR

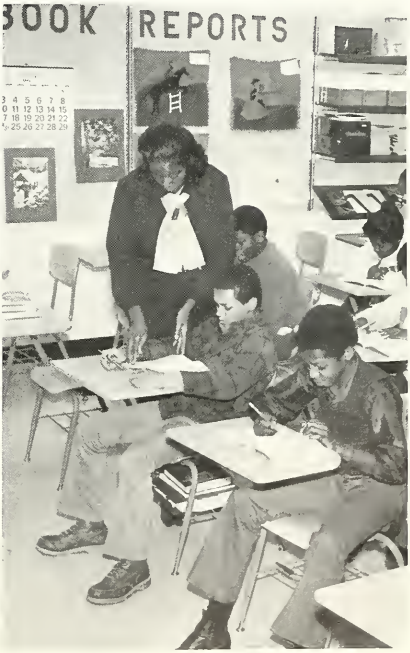
Mrs. Ann Gargett's French class is listening to a Frenchman speaking in his native language.

Mrs. Virginia Loveland's Latin class celebrated the Roman holiday Saturnalia on December 17, 1971.

Mrs. Sharon Espich is telling aspiring senors and senoritas the history of Spanish a customs and traditions.



INDIANS WORK HARD AT STUDIES



SEWING, COOKING AND NURSING CHALLENGE FUTURE HOME MAKERS

The way to a man's heart is right straight through to his stomach and didn't the home economics class know it! Tantalizing odors drifted forth from B-200 to remind all students that they were busy preparing to be future homemakers.
